NARRATIVE:

Martinez has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes convictions for multiple possession of narcotic controlled substance, possession of controlled substance, illegal possession of ammunition, intimidate victim / witness, multiple cruelty to child, forgery, evading peace officers, reckless driving, resisting, DUI, suspended license, use / under the influence of controlled substance and multiple corporal injury to spouse. Martinez has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 32-month term for possession of controlled substance. Martinez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 09, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in October 2013 after Martinez absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Martinez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Martinez is a member of the "White Fence 13 Gang" with a moniker of "Wicked or Lil Man". His prior criminal history, gang membership and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
